Your Excellency:

We are writing to thank you for your leadership on the life issues of equal justice and Gospel nonviolence and to encourage you to keep challenging Catholics and others to live out our vocation as peacemakers in the church and in the world. We have especially admired your 2019 pastoral statement, The Journey to Racial Justice: Repentance, Healing and Action, and the 2018 statement, The Enduring Power of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Principles of Nonviolence.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., in his 1967 "Beyond Vietnam" speech, decried "the giant triplets of racism, extreme materialism, and militarism." We hope you will likewise draw connections for the faithful between the immoral diversion of public resources from human needs to endless wars and militarized police; racial disparities in income, health, employment, housing, education, and law enforcement; and the widening gap between those committed to privilege and conspicuous consumption and those with few if any resources to fall back on.

Pax Christi Metro DC-Baltimore (PCMDCB) is a regional chapter of Pax Christi USA, a national chapter of Pax Christi International, the global Catholic peace movement. PCMDCB promotes the Peace of Christ by exploring, living, and articulating the Christian vocation of nonviolent peacemaking. Through prayer, study, and action, PCMDCB serves as a Catholic peace witness in the Metro DC and Baltimore area, emphasizing Catholic Social Teaching.

We strive to educate ourselves, the Catholic faithful, and the wider civic community in the message of peace, the sacredness of human life, the dignity of the human person, and care for our common home. And we assist Pax Christi USA in influencing the national policy discourse, working in collaboration with many other faith-based and secular groups.

Please call on us if we can ever be helpful to you. You can reach Robert Cooke at 301-661-0449.
