

THE ISRAEL-PALESTINE CONFLICT— LIVES IN THE BALANCE

Learn why this is a pivotal moment for peace, justice, human rights and security and why this issue is of major importance to all members of the Abrahamic faiths – Jews, Christians, and Muslims.

Saturday, April 27
8:30am to 12:30pm

Church of the Resurrection
3315 Greencastle Rd
Burtonsville, MD 20866

Pax Christi Metro DC-Baltimore invites you to join us in hearing from five distinguished speakers on this vital subject who will provide us with up-to-date information. Our speakers are:

Marie Dennis – Co-President of Pax Christi International. Marie has worked on bringing justice and peace to the Holy Land for decades.

Dr. Mark Braverman – Executive Director of Kairos USA. Mark is a Jewish psychologist from a Conservative Jewish (and Zionist) family.

Jamal Najjab – Government Relations Coordinator for American Muslims for Palestine and an active member of Jewish Voice for Peace, DC.

Leah Muskin-Pierret – Manager of Congressional and Grass-roots Advocacy for U.S. Campaign for Palestinian Rights.

Tom McCarthy – MD/DC/VA Coordinator for Creating Friendships for Peace. Tom has been working for many years to bring high school students from both sides of the conflicts in Northern Ireland, Cyprus, and now Israel-Palestine to the U.S. each summer to meet each other.

Program Overview: The morning will include a short overview film, followed by a Q&A session for those who would like to ask basic questions about what is happening in the Holy Land. We will then have presentations by each of our speakers, followed by a Q&A session regarding the presentations. We will end with short presentations on how we can best continue to educate ourselves on this issue and to advocate and take other action for a just and peaceful solution for all.
